

HIGGS & JOHNSON

Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

Firm Ranked by 2014 Editions of Leading Legal Publications IFLR1000 and Chambers Global

Higgs & Johnson has been ranked as a Tier 1 law firm by both IFLR1000 and Chambers Global for 2014. The firm was ranked in the Financial/Corporate category by IFLR 1000 and in General Business Law by Chambers Global. The firm has maintained its Tier 1 standing in The Bahamas for the past seven years and is continually recognized globally as a leading commercial firm.

Chambers Global noted, “This excellent firm is lauded for the superb strength and depth of its corporate and transactional departments. The team is distinguished by its ability to advise on international mandates and major projects, notably for clients in the financial services sector and the tourism and leisure industries. Its respected disputes practice is active across a wide range of cases including asset recovery, trust litigation and labour matters.”

In The Bahamas, Partners Surinder Deal and Christel Sands-Feaste were listed yet again as leading lawyers in IFLR1000. Senior Partner, Philip C. Dunkley, Q.C. and Partners, Heather L. Thompson, Christel Sands-Feaste and Dr. Earl A. Cash were listed as leading lawyers in Chambers Global. Ms. Thompson, Mrs. Sands-Feaste and Dr. Cash were recommended in General Business Law and Mr. Dunkley in General Business Law: Dispute Resolution.

In the Cayman Islands, Philip Boni - Partner and John Harris – Associate, were recommended in Dispute Resolution by Chambers Global.